RIZKY FADHILLAH
Undergraduate Student

ABOUT ME

I am Rizky Fadhillah, a student of the Information Technology Study Program at Telkom University with a strong enthusiasm for exploring technology. I am always open to learning new things, both independently and collaboratively, and highly motivated to seek experiences that can broaden my horizons and enhance my skills in system development, networking, and other digital technologies.

I also have professional experience as an AI Engineer Intern at SoftwareOne Indonesia, where I worked on an Interactive Call Agent project, gaining hands-on experience in applying artificial intelligence solutions to real-world business needs.
